

Financial Accountant

Ancora is seeking a Financial Accountant responsible for the generation, preparation and communication of accurate, timely and complete financial information. Under the guidance and supervision of Ancora's Controller, the Financial Accountant will complete a wide range of reporting, analytical and general accounting activities necessary to support a rapidly growing financial services company.

Location

This position is located at Ancora's Cleveland, Ohio, office.

Duties and Responsibilities

- > Prepare and analyze journal entries in accordance with GAAP, including but not limited to: accruals, allocations and reclassifications
- > Support all aspects of the monthly, quarterly and year-end close process
- > Assist with the creation and generation of monthly financial statements and provide reporting to the parent company
- > Prepare reconciliations of general ledger and sub-ledger accounts
- > Manage the accounts payable process
- > Support all aspects of the annual audit
- > Aggregate, compile and manipulate expansive populations of financial data
- > Assist with defining all financial processes and internal controls

Key Traits

Change Excites You – You are energized by change and the opportunities it presents. Ancora is a high-growth organization, which means that change is inevitable and frequent.

Analytically Strong – You enjoy working with large data sets and have strong technical skills to dissect and analyze.

Technically Sound – Comfortable with GAAP accounting and accustomed to generating detailed support for all underlying transactions.

Detail Orientated – Accuracy is a cornerstone of success. You understand the importance of presenting accurate financial information and strive for excellence.

Pursuit of the RIGHT solution – You are not willing to settle for a “quick fix.” Committing to finding the right solution will only increase the firm's potential growth and success.

Team Player – You believe that “the whole is greater than the sum of its parts.” You thrive in a team environment where collaboration is key.
